

Chandrashekhar Bhide is the Co-founder of Lithion Power.

He is an alumnus of IIT-Bombay, IIM Ahmedabad and has a law degree from Mumbai University. Across 19 years of work experience, he has launched multiple businesses from scratch across IT, banking & financial services, telecom industries. He has held senior roles at Sapien, Yes Bank, Times of Money, Idea Cellular & DBS Bank in the past before starting on his entrepreneurial journey.

Lithion Power is involved with the following business lines:

- Design, development & supply of smart connected products like Battery Management Systems, Telemetry units, motor controllers, chargers, etc.
 - Shared infrastructure & intelligent platform for EV (Electric Vehicles) charging & battery swapping across electric 3W and 2W
 - EV-only fleet delivery for last-mile logistics for ecommerce companies
- Lithion Power works with EV OEMs, battery pack manufacturers, fleet operators, etc. & is committed towards making the dream of an “EV-only India by 2030”, a reality!